Joe Stauton, captain of the basket ball team, will do the managerial end of the work this year, and O. Lund, another member of the basket ball team, is selected as captain. Both are also members of the track and field team, Stanton ranking next to big Joe Smith in the hammer and shot put events, and Lund the leading pole vaulter of the school.

Stovall Goes to Detroit.

Pitcher Jesse Stovall has been traded by Cleveland to Detroit for an outfielder named Lush. (Special to The Heraid.)

Washigton, Feb. 22—Commissioner Richards of the general land office has written a letter to Governor Chatterton of Wyoming relative to the apparent conflict between the state of Wyoming and the United States in relation to the proposed Shoshone river trigation project which the reclamation service wishes to undertake but for which the state would not grant water rights until given lands for contiguous Oregon basin enterprise undertaken under the Carey act. Commissioner Richards writes that his office called upon the state October last for data as to the supply of water available to reclaim the lands sought to be segregated for the Oregon basin enterprise, and the delay in granting segregation has been occasioned by the state not complying with this request and not in having (Special to The Herald.) hick-land office for consideration.
